ING announces new MD Insurance

ING New Zealand (ING NZ) today announced the appointment of Jeremy Nicoll as Managing Director – Insurance.

Mr Nicoll has been with ING NZ for just over 10 years. He has most recently been Managing Director – Real Estate for ING NZ, responsible for two New Zealand-based listed property trusts. Prior to that, he was CFO and Company Secretary for ING Real Estate. He has an extensive background in finance both within New Zealand and internationally, originally joining ING as a fund accountant following two years in London with Cazenove & Co, after starting his career in Auckland with Coopers & Lybrand.

In announcing the appointment, CEO Helen Troup said, “Jeremy has been a strong leader within ING over the past decade. He has the skills and experience required to successfully lead a complex financial services business, which will ensure the future success of ING Life.

“Jeremy is highly regarded by his colleagues and customers, and has a proven track record in developing positive, constructive relationships,” continued Ms Troup.

Mr Nicoll will officially commence his new position on Monday, 10 August. Mr Nicoll holds a BCom from Auckland University, and is a Chartered Accountant. He is married with two children and lives on Auckland’s North Shore.
